PROFILE

EDUCATION

SUSSEX UNIVERSITY (UK)

- BSc Computer Science
- MSC Computer Science

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY (UK)

- MA English Philology

ESSEX UNIVERSITY (UK)

- PhD Child Psychology

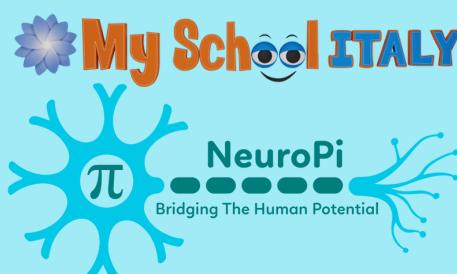

My career has never followed a straight line — and that's intentional. I have worked at the crossroads of scientific discovery, technological innovation, and human development, always with a belief that no single discipline holds all the answers. From leading data-driven research at the European Union's Joint Research Centre, to developing learning frameworks for children and adults, to building businesses that serve real human needs — every step has been about bridging knowledge with compassion.
